A. Student - Full time / Half-time - A borrower may defer repayment of a Perkins Loan, NDSL, or National Defense Student Loan (Defense Loan) if he or she is enrolled at least halftime in an eligible institution. Interest will not accrue during the deferment. To receive a deferment based on at least half-time enrollment, also called an in-school deferment, the student must be enrolled as a regular student in an eligible institution of higher education or a comparable institution outside the United States approved by the Department for deferment purposes. However, it is not a requirement that the school participate in the Federal Perkins Loan Program. If a borrower is attending a school that ceases to qualify as an institution of higher education, the borrower’s deferment ends on the date the school ceases to qualify. A regular student is one who is enrolled for the purpose of obtaining a degree or certificate. If the borrower is attending at least half time as a regular student for a full academic year and intends to do so in the next academic year, he or she is entitled to a deferment for 12 months.

B. Volunteer Peace Corps or Domestic Volunteer Act of 1973 – A borrower may defer repayment for up to three years and interest will not accrue while he or she is a Peace Corps volunteer, a volunteer under Title I, Part A of the Domestic Volunteer Service Act of 1973 (ACTION programs), or a full-time volunteer in service for a tax-exempt organization that the Department has determined is comparable to Peace Corps or ACTION service. A borrower is considered to be providing service comparable to Peace Corps or ACTIONS service if he or she meets all of the following five criteria: 1) The borrower serves in an organization that is exempt from taxation under the provisions of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954. 2) The borrower provides service to low-income person and his or her communities to assist them in eliminating poverty and poverty related human, social, and environmental conditions. 3) The borrower does not receive compensation that exceeds the rate prescribed under Section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (the federal minimum wage), except that the tax-exempt organization may provide the volunteer with health, retirement, and other fringe benefits that are substantially equivalent to the benefits offered to other employees of the organization. 4) The borrower, as part of his or her duties, does not give religious instruction, conduct worship service, engage in religious proselytizing, or engage in fund raising to support religious activities. 5) The borrower has agreed to serve on a full-time basis for a term of at least one year.

C. Full time member of Armed Forces – A borrower may defer repayment for up to three years and interest will not accrue while he or she is a member of the U.S. Army, Navy, Air Force, Marines, or Coast Guard, a member of the National Guard or the Reserves serving a period of full-time active duty in the armed forces, or an officer in the Commissioned Corps of the U.S. Public Health Service.

D. Internship or Residency – A borrower whose Perkins Loan was made before July 1, 1993 and who is enrolled in a medical in internship or residency program is not considered to be in school for deferment purposes and may not receive an in-school deferment on the Perkins Loan for the internship or residency program, however, the borrower is eligible for an in-school deferment for up to two years. While the borrower is serving an eligible internship, he or she may defer repayment for up to two years. Interest will not accrue during the internship deferment. An eligible internship is one that requires the borrower to hold at least a bachelor’s degree before beginning the program; in addition, the internship must meet the criteria of either a or b. 1) The successful completion of the internship must be required by the state licensing agency as a prerequisite for certification of the individual for professional practice or service. For this type of eligible internship, the borrower must provide the school with the following certification. 2) A statement from an official of the appropriate state licensing agency indicating that the successful completion of the internship is required by the state licensing agency as a prerequisite for certification for professional practice or service. 2) A statement from the organization where the borrower will be providing service indicating that the services are required to be provided by individuals with at least a bachelor’s degree. A) The borrower provides service to low-income persons and their communities to assist them in eliminating poverty and poverty related human, social, and environmental conditions. 3) The borrower does not receive compensation that exceeds the rate prescribed under Section 6 of the Fair Labor Standards Act of 1938 (the federal minimum wage), except that the tax-exempt organization may provide the volunteer with health, retirement, and other fringe benefits that are substantially equivalent to the benefits offered to other employees of the organization. 4) The borrower, as part of his or her duties, does not give religious instruction, conduct worship service, engage in religious proselytizing, or engage in fund raising to support religious activities. 5) The borrower has agreed to serve on a full-time basis for a term of at least one year.

E. A member of oceanic and atmospheric administration corps – A borrower may defer repayment for up to three years and interest will not accrue while he or she is on full-time active duty as a member of the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration Corps.

F. Mother of pre-school age children who entered/reentered the work force, and is making $1.00 less above minimum wage – A borrower of a Perkins Loan made before July 1, 1993 may also defer repayment and interest will not accrue during a period up to one year if the borrower is a mother of a preschool-age child, provided the mother is going to work or going back to work, at a salary that is no more than $1.00 above the minimum hourly wage.

G. I am pregnant, caring for my newborn, or caring for a child immediately after adoption – A borrower of a Perkins Loan made before July 1, 1993 may also defer repayment up to six months if the borrower is pregnant, or if he or she is tending care of a newborn or newly adopted child. The borrower must be unemployed and not attending school and must apply for deferment within six months of leaving school or dropping below half-time status.

H. Graduate / Fellowship – A borrower enrolled in and attendance as a regular student in a course of study that is part of a graduate fellowship program approved by the Department may defer payments. A borrower is engaged in graduate or postgraduate fellowship-supported study such as a Fulbright grant outside the United States.

I. Rehabilitation Training Program for Disabled Individuals – A borrower may defer repayment if he or she is enrolled in a course of study that is part of a Department-approved rehabilitation-training program for disabled individuals. To receive this deferment, the borrower must provide the school with certification that: 1) the borrower is receiving, or scheduled to receive, rehabilitation training from the agency; 2) the agency is licensed, approved, certified, or otherwise recognized by a State agency as responsible for the program; 3) the program is designed to rehabilitate, drug abuse treatment, mental health services, or alcohol abuse treatment; and 4) the agency provides or will provide the rehabilitation training services under a written plan that (1) is individualized to meet the borrower’s needs; (2) specifies the date that services will end; (3) is structured in a way that requires substantial commitment from the borrower. A substantial commitment from the borrower is a commitment of time and effort that would normally prevent the borrower from holding a full-time job either because of the number of hours that must be devoted to rehabilitation or because of the nature of the rehabilitation.
